 Salam Doctor.

I hope you are in good health.

Doctor, you knew earlier that my wife was sick and suffering from back-pain, which has now advanced and affected her spinal cord also. We were trying to take her abroad for better treatment but we failed due to financial constraints.

Doctor for the last few months I have been working as part timer with different universities to accumulate that financial support and now we are going to Bangkok after Eid for better treatment. Alhamdulillah.

By this time, I was so busy that I could not concentrate on my most important task - correction of my thesis and I apologize to you for this.

Doctor, is it possible that I can apply to SPS for one month extension to submit correction of my thesis? I am working on it and will be finished soon.

Doctor, I have given u a lot of hard times. I hope u will accept my apology.
