My Name is Pouya Foudeh, a PhD student of faculty of computing under supervision of Prof. Dr. Naomie Salim Matrix No PC093036.

I have sent a notification to submit a thesis in NOV 2016 with the expiry date of DEC 2017, but unfortunately because of the following coincidences I was not able to finish writing and submit my thesis.

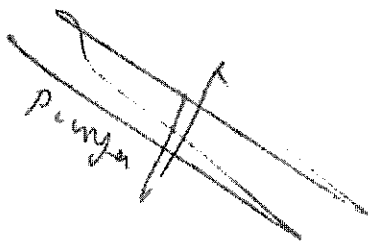

While I was submitting the notification (November 2016) I was expecting to be father of triple babies in 6 months (May 2017) and supposed to finish by the date. Nevertheless, in less than 3 months my wife had a serious health problems caused preterm delivery. At the time (February 2017) she and me lived in Johor Regency Hospital for about 1 month. During this, she had two times delivery. All 3 infants, each less than 1 KG, admitted to hospital for about 2.5 months, 2 in Regency and 1 in Sultanah Aminah hospital (HSA) and finally 2 of them discharged while 1 passed away and rested in Kebun Teh. Even after this, me and my wife were helpless in Malaysia was taking care of two very sensitive infants and finally after 6 months we moved to our country where have some family members that possibly help us and then I have some time to finish writing of my half written thesis.

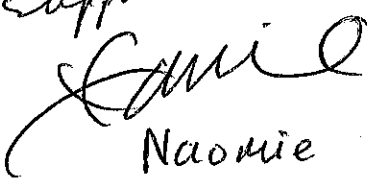

Now, the writing process of my thesis is in the final point and I am willing to submit it soon. Therefore, I request an extension for the notification to submit my thesis.

Best Regards

Pouya Foudeh
